~~The Condition~~ Compensation leave can be granted to an Officer who is refused permission to utilize the Dasara ~~Holi~~ or Christmas Holidays and is required to be on duty during those holidays. (Govt. 15.9 d. (M.S.R.). Kind reference is invited to the Fin. Govt. Secy's note in C.B. 230-21 (Sl' 3 x 4.). The conditions on which compensation leave can be granted do not seem to exist in this case.

I do not think the By Commr. ~~was~~ was entitled to any Compy. leave unless he was called upon (when he was holidaying) to attend office or refused permission to avail himself of the 'X mas. when he asked for such permission - the O.C. does not state that he was thus called upon to attend, or refused permission to utilize the holidays - ch. To

M. G. Krishnaswami Rao, Esq.,B.A.
Offg. Deputy Commissioner,
Kadur District.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No.H.C.275-22-23 dated the 12th January 1923 stating that you are availing yourself of 6 days' compensation leave from the 18th idem on account of your having done Jamabandy work in the Kadur Taluk during the recent Christmas holidays, I am directed to invite reference to Art. 159 A of the M. S. R. Regulating the Grant of Compensation leave. Under this article ~~the~~ compensation leave can be granted only to an officer who is called upon to attend office on a public authorised holiday or who is refused permission to utilize the Dasara or Christmas holidays and is required to attend office and to be on duty during these holidays.

An officer cannot claim compensation leave merely for the reason that he attended office or did Government work during the holidays in the ordinary course of his official duties.

I am therefore desired to state that in the present instance you are not eligible to any compensation leave. ~~The period of~~ Your absence may be treated as casual leave.

I have, etc.

Chief Secy. to Govt.

I am to state that Govt. ~~do~~ consider that the conditions above refer. to are not met in your case & that therefore ~~to~~ you are not eligible to compensation leave for the period - Superior's remarks will accordingly be communicated
